Representative Bob Dole
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir,

We are writing about our deep concern about the war in Vietnam. We have been encouraged by the efforts that have been made to negotiate for peace but feel much more can and must be done to end the suffering of the people of Vietnam and our American boys there.

We want to urge you to use your influence and power to end this terrible war. We are disappointed that the members of Congress from the Republican Party have supported this war and even urged that it be escalated.

Sincerely yours,

BOB DOLE

Dear [REDACTED]

This will acknowledge your letter expressing concern over the war in Viet Nam.

The majority of members of both parties in Congress support the theory we must not fall back on our commitments to foreign nations in repelling communist aggression wherever it may occur. I abhor war and have experienced what it means to be felled by enemy fire. It seems we must face the decision now whether to stop an enemy before millions of others are enslaved or meet the threat after the aggressor has become even more powerful and the cost more staggering.

Do continue to give me the benefit of your views, and if I may be of assistance at any time, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

BOB DOLE, M. C.
